INFORMATION ON THE INSTITUTION

General Description of the Institution

The Faculty of Medicine, a non-profit state institution, is the oldest faculty of Erciyes University. The Faculty of Medicine started education in the 1969–1970 academic year. Currently, a total of 1330 students are in its undergraduate program. The faculty employs a total of 719 academic staff; 149 professors, 57 associate professors, 43 assistant professor, 20 teaching assistants and 450 research assistants.

The faculty is composed of three departments, namely Basic Medical Sciences, Internal Medical Sciences and Surgical Medical Sciences. The faculty has a hospital also (Gevher Nesibe Education and Research Hospital). It is the biggest reference hospital in the region (Cappadocia) with a capacity of 1200 beds.

The students takes the courses on the basic medical sciences in the first four semesters, and the courses on introduction to clinical sciences in the 5th and 6th semesters. The students rotates in various clinical departments in the 4th and 5th years and 12 months rotating internship at last year. All of the courses are in Turkish language.